

This is the continuation of my story to confirm the Callaway connection.

We have been told that my Aunt Katherine (Kate) had proudly espoused the Arundel connection. While that is true, it is only by marriage, not by birth. It has been related to us that she had the Arundel Crest on her sitting room wall. While I only ever knew her as a child, I do remember that she was a proud lady.

In my childhood times, proving or refuting such a claim would have been a hard and costly task. Today, with so much information available through the Internet, it has been less of a task to establish the truth.

I was able finally to obtain the marriage certificate for WHP snr and Betsy Callaway ...
