

Captain John Annesley Hickson

John Annesley Hickson was born in Dublin, Ireland, on 22nd February 1798. He died in Auckland, New Zealand, on the 16 March 1858. His father was Richard Hickson (1754-) and mother Catherine Skerret(-).

On 27th December 1821 he married Elizabeth Pleasant Williams(1803-) in Clontarf Church in Ireland.

He was an officer of the 73rd Regiment, and in 1848 brought out a company of pensioners per ship "Ann," Captain Walker, to Auckland, and, settling at Otahuhu, he remained until his death in 1858. The ship departed from Belfast Ireland 25th December 1847 and arrived in Auckland on the 16th May 1848.

The following comes from a family history written by Cora Longton (nee Hickson).

Captain and Staff Officer of pensioners (late 31st Regt) was born in Dublin 22nd Feb 1798. On 27th December 1821 he was married in Clontarf Church by the Rev Charles Molloy to Elizabeth Pleasant, second daughter of Richardson Williams of Stanville Lodge, Clontarf, Co. Dublin.

Captain and Paymaster of the Londonerry (or 16th) Regt of Militia. Educated at Ennis, Co Clare, Ireland, at a private school which the principal was Rev Dr Finucane.

On 7th Sept 1812 was appointed Ensign in the North Cork (or 34) Regt of Militia of which his father was a major.

His commision (by purchase) in the Regular army is dated 25th December 1813, when he joined the 88th Regt (Connaught Rangers) taking with him 50 men of the North Cork Regt. He served the campaign of 1814 in Canada under Sir George Sprvost, and that of 1815 in the Netherlands and France under Field Marshall, the Duke of Wellington, after which he was for some years in the Army of occupation in Paris.

On the death of his father in 1819, he retired on half pay from the 12th Regt of Foot on account of urgent family affairs. At this time he was unfortunate enough to loose his property "The Wilderness", Co, Tipperary through the mismanagement of his lawyer.

On 11th November 1824 he joined the 73rd regt as Quartermaster which naturally retarded his promotion, but having lost his property, and with an increasing family he found it necessary as being more lucrative.

From 1824-27 he was stationed in Ireland. From 1827-29 he was with his regiment in Gilbraltar, From 1829-34 in Malta, 1834-38 in Ionian Islands. In 1839 he went out to Canada with his regiment for the second time remaining theree for two and a half years. He then spent several years between England and Ireland when his regt (the 73rd) being ordered to the Cape of Good Hope. He joined the 31st Regt and soon afterwards was appointed staff officer of Pensioners at Thures N B (hard to read unsure of word). In 1847 Captain Hickson was appointed Staff Officer of Pensioners at Auckland, New Zealand. he came out to the Colony with his wife and family in the barque "Ann" 801 tons, in command Captain S C Walker having left Belfast, Ireland on 25th december 1847, arriving at Auckland on 16th may 1848.

Captain Hickson brought out 73 pensioners and their wives and families (The NZ Fencible Corps). The party complied of 73 men, 66 men and 10 children. he received a grant of land at Otahuhu, Auckland - from the imperial government, and added considerably to this by purchasing adjacent lands, besides owning a nice property in the Waikato, all of which property went at his death, to his eldest surviving son, Joseph edward Hickson as heir -at-law, he having died intestate.

Captain Hickson intended settling some of his sons on the land before returning home and rejoining his Regt but he became blind, so remained in Auckland until his death in 1858. he sold out with the rank as Major two months before his demise. he died on the 16th march 1858 having had issue nine sons and five daughters.
